Good Afternoon,

September 22, 2020

This message is from the Whitehall-Coplay School District Administration. With regard to all future athletic events, including the Friday evening football game on 9/25/20, vs. Bethlehem Catholic, there will be no general admission tickets sold.

Ticket distribution will be limited to participants (coaches, athletes, band members, etc.), family members of participants and WCSD students.

Participants and permitted spectators will follow all social distancing and mask guidelines in place as per the CDC and Governor's orders.

With time, this process may evolve and change as new information, circumstances or guidelines are provided. Any changes or new information related to this process will be shared as it becomes available.

While we understand that this information may be disappointing to our community members, please understand that the WCSD must maintain an environment of safety and follow all prescribed guidelines as per the CDC and PA Department of Health.

Sincerely,

WCSD Administration
